He was born September 16, 1947, in Rowan County to the late Clifford and Ida Basinger Earnhardt. Mr. Earnhardt was a 1965 graduate of East Rowan High School and then graduated from Mitchell College in Statesville. He then enlisted in the United States Navy. After his discharge from military service, he returned to Salisbury and worked for Fiber Industries, retiring after nearly 40 years.

He was a lifelong member of Union Lutheran Church in Salisbury where he served as a Sunday School teacher, church council member, stewardship committee member and member of numerous other committees through the years. Mr. Earnhardt also served as Scoutmaster for Troop 334 for more than 25 years at Union Lutheran Church. He was also a member of Faith American Legion Post 327 and served on the board for Thrivent Financial. Outside of work, church, and scouting, he loved his garden and seeding tomatoes and traveling to car shows.

Father’s Day Poem

A Dad is a person who is loving and kind,
and often he knows what you have on your mind.
He’s someone who listens, suggests, and defends.
A dad can be one of your very best friends!
He’s proud of your triumphs,
but when things go wrong,
A dad can be patient and helpful and strong.
In all that you do, a dad’s love plays a part.
There’s always a place for him deep in your heart.
And each year that passes, you’re even more glad,
More grateful and proud just to call him your dad!
Thank you, Dad . . .
for listening and caring, for giving and sharing,
but, especially, for just being you!
Happy Father’s Day.

—Author Unknown
Dear Union Family,

May the following touch and sensitize you.

Tap, tap, tap. Josh stood by the window defiantly holding a drumstick in his hand. Why does Mommy always have to spoil my fun? Why can’t I drum on the window if I want to? Tap, tap. Okay, I’ll stop … but why should I stop? I’m not hurting anything. I’m not hitting Madison. And it makes such an intriguing sound. Tap, tap, crack.

I can just imagine what our 3-year-old was thinking when he broke the window in our living room. Clearly, he didn’t mean to break it. Having never broken a window before, it came as a complete shock that glass would behave in such a fragile, brittle way. He didn’t break it because he was angry with me either. He was just drumming, pursuing his God-given passion.

The problem is our son wasn’t listening. He was in his own little world when I first corrected him. He didn’t hear a word I said. But that was only half the problem. Once I finally got his full attention, he still didn’t listen; I mean really listen. He heard me say, “Stop!” but he had different ideas on the subject. He couldn’t foresee the consequences of his actions, so he disregarded my instructions and did as he pleased.

How familiar is this story? It plays out over and over again in countless variations. A marriage fails, a church divides, a window breaks, and we wonder how could it happen. Sometimes it happens because God was saying, “This is the way; walk in it,” but we were not listening. Lord, open our ears that we may hear your voice. Help us to listen, really listen.

On Thursday, May 23rd your Call Committee met for the first time. For 45 minutes we had a conference call with Pastor David Wendel, Assistant to the Bishop NALC. He went through the steps we need to take to prepare for the calling of our new pastor. Each member had the Call Committee Manual and a copy of our Congregational Profile. Our job is for each committee member to fill out the profile and then we will compare how each answered the questions. A modified version will be given to the congregation for their input as well.

The committee chose Frank Merrill to be the Chairman and Steve Walton to be the Vice Chairman. The other members of the Call Committee are: Kay Morgan, Felisaty Morgan, Kat Clifton (Recording Secretary) Nikki Nguyen, and Steve Hutchens. Alternates are: Lynn Coughenour and Vicki Peeler.
Our primary work is to listen to the voice of the Holy Spirit as He guides us through this process. That is accomplished by prayer as a group and as individuals, listening to each other and the congregation as we seek a new pastor. The next meeting of the Call Committee is June 18th at 7:00 PM.

As your Intentional Interim Pastor, I will be available for guidance and will attend the meetings. However, I will not actively be involved in recommending or seeking a particular pastoral candidate.

Prayer For the Work of the Call Committee

Almighty God, giver of all good gifts: Look on your Church with grace and guide the minds of those who shall choose a pastor for this congregation, that we may receive a faithful servant who will care for your people and equip us for our ministries; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

(Lutheran Book of Worship, pg. 46)

On a personal note: On Saturday, May 25, 2019, I conducted the funeral for Clifford Earnhardt. The night before we had visitation from 6:00 - 9:00 PM. Clifford was involved with so much of the ministry of the church from the Sound Room and videotaping the service, Boy Scouts, setting up the fellowship hall when microphones were needed, helping count the offerings and a host of other ministries. His wonderful smile and willing spirit will be missed beyond words. Our hearts and prayers surround Mary Elizabeth, Sean and Holly, as well as all of the family and extended family.

Psalm 46:1-11 (ESV)

1 God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.
2 Therefore we will not fear though the earth gives way, though the mountains be moved into the heart of the sea,
3 though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains tremble at its swelling.
4 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy habitation of the Most High.
5 God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved; God will help her when morning dawns.
6 The nations rage, the kingdoms totter; he utters his voice, the earth melts.
7 The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress.
8 Come, behold the works of the LORD, how he has brought desolations on the earth.
9 He makes wars cease to the end of the earth; he breaks the bow and shatters the spear; he burns the chariots with fire.
10 “Be still, and know that I am God. I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth!”
11 The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress.

Union must always look to the Lord. Therein lies our hope and His future.

To God be the glory,

Pastor Tom Corbell

RECIPE FOR FATHERHOOD

A man who wishes to be a great Christian Father should consider the following:

A. Let your children see that you treat your own parents with love and respect. Honor them.

B. Let your children see that you love your heavenly Father.

C. Show in various ways that you love their mother. A loving home is a secure, supportive home where each person is treated with tender loving care.

D. Listen to your children. Put down the paper, turn off the TV, leave the computer and frequently ask what is going on in their lives.

E. Plan and execute trips and recreational activities together.

F. Take part in school, scouting, musical and drama activities with them. Praise sincerely whatever contribution the child has made to the event.

G. Make your home cheerful. Tell funny stories and laugh. Laughter at the table creates a happy environment.

H. When your children ask for it, give your best advice, but don't complain when they don't follow it. The school of hard knocks is still relevant.

I. Take them to worship regularly. The church helps provide guidance, stability and unity for families. And God can seal together the family that honors Him.
